7th March 2023

Dear Parent,

As you are aware the National Education Union are holding two more strike days on Wednesday, 15th and Thursday, 16th March. We have, once again, reviewed the timetable to see if it is possible to keep the school open for specific year groups in addition to those pupils who have been contacted or who have registered as critical worker families.

To help with your planning and to provide as much advance warning as possible I would like to confirm that school will be open for the following year groups:

Wednesday, 15th March: Year 10 and Year 7.
Thursday, 16th March: Year 10 and Year 9.

Year 10 will be continuing with their exams and should bring in additional revision on those days if their teacher is not present.

Years 7 and 9 should also bring in additional work books on their relevant days should their teachers not be present on specific days.

Once again, I apologise for the disruption that this causes. These are the last of the four strike days that have currently been announced. Should there be any announcements of the strikes being suspended then school will be open as usual.

May I also remind you of a change in date for the training day that was in the calendar for the 14th March. This has been moved to the 18th April so the first day back for pupils after the Easter holidays will be the 19th April. School will therefore be open as normal on the 14th March.

Yours sincerely,

Geraldine A. Higgins
Executive Headteacher
