Monday

DREAM VILLAIN

Monday

Today is international literacy day!

It is a great gift to be able to read, it opens up new worlds, concepts and possibilities for the future.

Today we give thanks to God for the gift of reading and remember all those who do not have access to the joy of books.

Monday

Dear Lord,

Thank you for the gift of education, for the ability to read and write, for the ideas that we share and learn with those who have gone before us and those with whom we share our days.

Amen.

DREAM VILLAIN

Tuesday

This half term we are reminded that all human beings have dignity regardless of any difference we might see. We are all equally loved by God.

Tuesday

Loving God,
We believe that each person is special because God made us all.
Help us try to make sure all people are treated with respect and have what they need because God made them too.

Lord in your mercy

Wednesday

DREAM VILLAIN

Word Wednesday

On Wednesday we take time to reflect on Sacred Scripture.

We will listen to and reflect on the Sunday Gospel.

Word Wednesday

Reader: A reading from the Holy Gospel
according to Mark

All: Glory to you O Lord (3 Crosses)

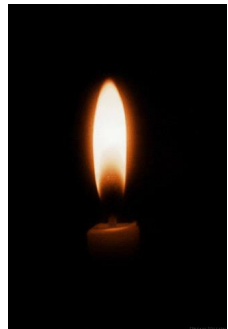

Word Wednesday

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord
All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Word Wednesday

In a moment of silent prayer reflect on the words of the Gospel.

Think of one line that stood out for you.

What is God's message for you today?

Word Wednesday

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha', that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

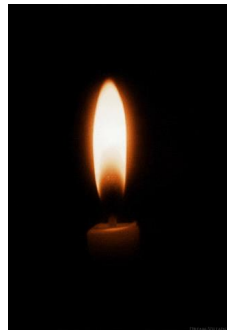

Word Wednesday

Together we pray:

Father, inspire us to hear your voice and the voice of those around us, give us courage to speak up and respond with compassion.

Amen.

Thursday

DREAM VILLAIN

Thursday

- On the 5th September we celebrated the Feast of St Teresa of Calcutta.
- St Teresa was a person who used her life to transform the lives of the most vulnerable.
- She chose her mission of helping the poor on the streets of Kolkata (Calcutta) at the suggestion of The Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions, the sisters who founded our school.
- Today we are going to reflect on a piece of advice that she gave.

Thursday

- Read this passage as a class and then take a minute or two to reflect on its message.

“People are often unreasonable and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of ulterior motives. Be kind anyway. If you are honest, people may cheat you. Be honest anyway.

If you find happiness, people may be jealous. Be happy anyway.

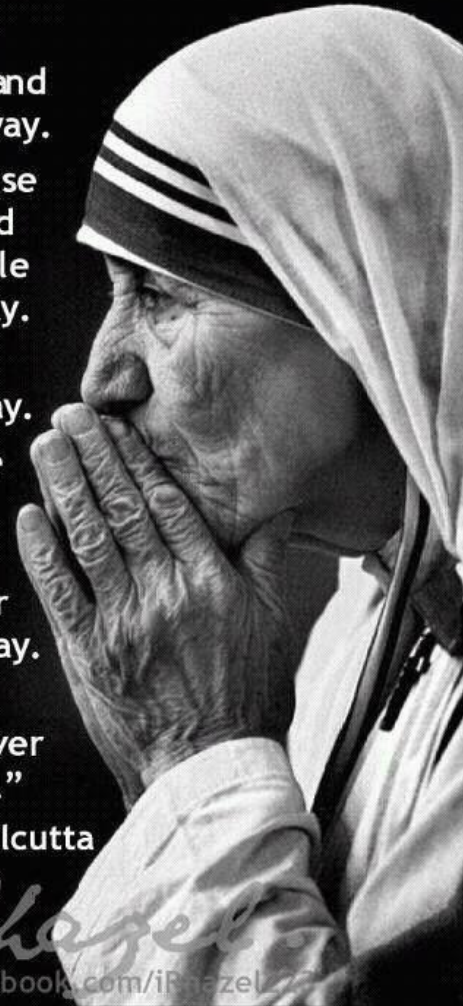

The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow.

Do good. Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway.

For you see, in the end, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway.”

- Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Thursday

Let us pray

We ask you Lord to inspire us to remember that when we feel compelled to do good, we should fear no obstacle and always do what we know to be right and pleasing to you.

Amen.

Our Father Friday

DREAM VILLAIN

Our Father Friday

Pope Francis had asked that as a church we re-discover the richness of the prayer that Jesus gave us, the Our Father.

Today as we pray let us think about our CST theme of Human Dignity and how this prayer calls for the recognition of the dignity of all people so simply yet so powerfully.

Our Father Friday

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.
Thy Will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen.
