DREAM VILLAIN

Monday

November is the month dedicated to the Faithful Departed.

We will start with a prayer service in their honour:

The Liturgy for the Holy Souls.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled.

Trust in God still, and trust in me.

There are many rooms in my Father’s house;
if there were not, I should have told you.

I am going now to prepare a place for you,
and after I have gone and prepared you a place,
I shall return to take you with me;
so that where I am you may be too.

Thomas, one of the Twelve, said,
'Lord, we do not know where you are going,
so how can we know the way?'

Jesus said:

'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

No one can come to the father except through me.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.’

Jesus gave us the Eucharist to give us life.

He is the life we receive in the Eucharist.

At the beginning of this reading Jesus tells us,

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

Believe in God, believe also in me.”

Jesus never wanted us to have life without trouble,

but He promised that we could have an untroubled heart even in a troubled life. Instead of giving in to a troubled heart, Jesus tells His apostles to put their trust in God and in Jesus Himself.

‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.’

Bidding Prayers

Lord, we believe when we call, that you will hear and answer us. We ask you now to listen to our prayers.

We pray for our family members and friends who have died. May they be at peace in your presence. Bring us the comfort of Your love now and forever.
(pause for silent prayer).

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for those lost through war or violence that the tragedy of their deaths may encourage people to work for peace (pause for silent prayer).

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for those who have died before their time, through accidents or suicide, that their loss may remind us of the sacredness of life (pause for silent prayer).

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for people overcome by grief, that the power of Christ's love may lift them and renew their hope (pause for silent prayer).

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

We pray for the forgotten souls, members of our school community and parish, that they may always have the benefit of prayers offered here
(pause for silent prayer).

Lord, hear us. Lord, graciously hear us.

We ask Our Lady to intercede for us,
Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee ...

In Memory

Do not stand at my gates and weep.
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
When you awake in the morning hush
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there, I did not die.

In Memory

Please write the name/s of people you would like remembered on the leaf.

The leaves will be displayed in the Chapel and those mentioned will be prayed for during Mass on Tuesday mornings during November.

There is a Memoriam Book in the Chapel where the name/s of those for whom you wish to pray may be written. Put the name and date on a piece of paper and place on the Chaplain's desk.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and may the perpetual light
shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
Amen.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be celebrated for those who have died on 11th November 2025
at 8:00 a.m.
in the Chapel

Tuesday

Today, we celebrate the Memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, a cardinal who was dedicated to education and care for the poor.

He reminds us that true leadership is not about power or prestige, but about solidarity, service, courage, and compassion.

Tuesday

Loving God,

You called Saint Charles Borromeo to lead with solidarity, service, courage, and compassion. Help us to follow his example by serving others with open hearts and humble hands. May we be brave in the face of difficulty, generous in times of need, and faithful in our commitment to justice and love. Teach us to lead not for recognition, but to lift others up. And may our actions today reflect the light of Your presence in the world.

Amen.

On Wednesday we take time to reflect on Sacred Scripture.

We will listen to and reflect on the Gospel of Matthew.

Word Wednesday

Reader: A reading from the Holy Gospel
according to Matthew

All: Glory to you O Lord (3 Crosses)

Word Wednesday

You are salt for the earth. But if salt loses its taste, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing and can only be thrown out to be trampled under people's feet. You are light for the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in people's sight, so that, seeing your good works, they may give praise to your Father in heaven.

Word Wednesday

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Word Wednesday

This passage explains that Jesus' followers are the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world," acting as a preservative, seasoning, and illuminating influence in the world. The passage encourages Christians to let their good deeds be visible, serving as a city on a hill or a lamp on a stand, so that others may see these actions and glorify God the Father.

Word Wednesday

Reflection:

Am I living as “salt of the earth”... do my actions preserve goodness and bring out the best in others?

Am I living as “light of the world”... do I let my faith and love shine in ways that encourage and uplift those around me?

Word Wednesday

In a moment of silent prayer reflect on the words of the Gospel.

Think of one line that stood out for you.

What is God's message for you today?

Word Wednesday

Together we pray:

May we always live in love, love of God and love of neighbour.

Amen.

DREAM VILLAIN

Thursday

This morning, we take a moment to reflect on the theme of solidarity (our Catholic Social Teaching theme for this half term).

Solidarity means standing with others, especially those who are suffering. Even when we cannot be physically present, we can walk alongside them through our compassion, our actions, and our prayers.

Let us pause and think of those who are sick, those nearing the end of life, their families, and the people who care for them with love and dedication.

May our hearts be open and may our prayers this morning be a quiet comfort to those in need.

Thursday

The Hospice Prayer

O' gracious God, Giver of all hope and comfort,

You have called us here to be the companions of those who are making their way home.

As you draw them into your healing light, touch us also. Transform our knowledge into vision, our skill into comfort, our pain into compassion,
and our grief into love;

That those who go before us may leave in dignity and peace, and that we may grow in gratitude.

Amen

Our Father Friday

Our Father Friday

Pope Leo has asked that as a church we re-discover the richness of the prayer that Jesus gave us: the Our Father.

As we pray today, let us think about our CST theme of Solidarity. Let us pray especially for all those in the world who are in need of prayers due to war, natural disasters, or economic poverty.

Our Father Friday

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.
Thy Will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen.
