DREAM VILLAIN

Monday

In September, Carlo Acutis, a British-born boy who died at the age of 15, was canonised as a Saint.

He was renowned for his deep devotion to the Catholic faith and his creative use of technology to share religious content.

His example recalls Pope Benedict XVI's appeal to the young people of Britain during his 2010 visit: the call to become Saints.

Monday

To be a saint is not about performing radical actions but about doing ordinary things with extraordinary love.

Let us reflect on the words of Pope Francis...

‘We need saints without cassocks, without veils – we need saints with jeans and tennis shoes. We need saints that go to the movies that listen to music, that hang out with their friends. We need saints that drink Coca-Cola, that eat hot dogs, that surf the internet and that listen to their iPods. We need saints that love the Eucharist, that are not afraid or embarrassed to eat a pizza or drink a beer with their friends.

We need saints who love the movies, dance, sports, theatre. We need saints that are open, sociable, normal, happy companions. We need saints who are in this world and who know how to enjoy the best in this world without being callous or mundane. We need saints.’

Prayer to Saint Damien of Molokai

God, our Father, we give thanks for Damien, our brother. Following Jesus, Your Son, he went to the lepers of Molokai, he became one of them even unto death; he showed them that You love them; he gave them back the pride of being human, and the hope of a future.

Therefore, we ask You; may we be resurrected by Your Spirit to walk in the footsteps of Damien, to be animated by the same faith.

Open our eyes, open our hearts, that we might go to all those abandoned, ignored, forgotten. Obtain that through us they may discover who You are. Raise up men and women ready to follow the road he has walked.

This is the prayer that we address to You, Father full of tenderness and love, You, our God, always and for all eternity. Amen.

Word Wednesday

Word Wednesday

On Wednesday we take time to reflect on Sacred Scripture.

We will listen to and reflect on the Gospel of Matthew.

Word Wednesday

Reader: A reading from the Holy Gospel
according to Matthew

All: Glory to you O Lord (3 Crosses)

Word Wednesday

'Again, you have heard how it was said to our ancestors, You must not break your oath but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you, do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the Evil One.

Word Wednesday

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Word Wednesday

This passage is about the importance of honesty and truthfulness in one's speech, urging followers to let their "yes" mean "yes" and their "no" mean "no".

Jesus teaches that excessive or insincere oath-taking is a sign of a dishonest heart, rather than a true commitment. Instead of making vows or oaths, believers are called to be people of such high integrity that their word is always trustworthy and sufficient.

Word Wednesday

Reflection

Am I simple and clear when I deal with others?

Do I keep my word?

How would Jesus approach a deal or agreement?

Word Wednesday

In a moment of silent prayer reflect on the words of the Gospel.

Think of one line that stood out for you.

What is God's message for you today?

Word Wednesday

Together we pray:

May we always remember to follow Christ,
the Servant King. May our actions, our sincerity, and our hearts reflect His way, so that we may lead others by our love.

Amen.

DREAM VILLAIN

Thursday

During this month of the Holy Souls, we pray for all of those who have died from the Sacred Heart Community.

We pray especially for all of the Sisters who founded our school and who served generations of pupils.

We thank God for their lives and for their service.

Thursday

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Our Father Friday

Our Father Friday

The Church invites us to re-discover the richness of the prayer Jesus gave us: the Our Father.

Today we pray for Sacred Heart schools worldwide, that they may remain a force for good and a means of building God's Kingdom on earth.

Our Father Friday

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.
Thy Will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen.
