Monday

In the Second Week of Advent, we light the candle of Peace.

Monday

We are reminded of our mission as Pilgrims of Hope:

To be agents of change,

working together for justice,

love and peace,

locally and globally.

Monday

We are Pilgrims of Hope when we are on a mission to build a world where:

- We are good stewards of the earth, knowing that the earth's gifts are for everyone, not just for a privileged few.
- We prepare a path to peace in our world, challenging the root causes of poverty and injustice.

Monday

Think about how you might be a Pilgrim of Hope in preparation for the birth of Christ by being an agent for change.

Write your pledge on a post it note.

Stick it to the Prayer of Hope to form a wreath.

Monday

We pray together:

Jesus, our light,

In this Jubilee Year,

you remind us of our call to love

our neighbours

and to set free those who suffer.

Help us to treat everyone with dignity;

to be fair, forgiving and kind.

Guide us on our journey as pilgrims

of hope.

Monday

Take a moment in silence to pray for your Advent Angel.

Monday

Tuesday

Let us reflect on Mary's encounter with her cousin Elizabeth whose child jumped for joy in her womb when Mary's voice was heard.

The child, who grew up to be John the Baptist, seemed to recognise the voice of the saviour's mother. He went on to tell us all to prepare the way for the Lord.

We think of this during Advent.

Tuesday

Mary spoke the words of this prayer to her cousin right after their encounter:

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
for He has looked with favour on His humble servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed,
the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is His Name.
He has mercy on those who fear Him, in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
He has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the humble.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich He has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of His servant Israel
for He has remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise He made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.
Amen

Word Wednesday

In the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar's reign, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judaea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of the lands of Ituraea and Trachonitis, Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, during the pontificate of Annas and Caiaphas the word of God came to John, son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. He went through the whole Jordan district proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the sayings of the prophet Isaiah:

Word Wednesday

A voice cries in the wilderness:
Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight.
Every valley will be filled in,
every mountain and hill be laid low,
winding ways will be straightened and rough roads made smooth.
And all mankind shall see the salvation of God.

Word Wednesday

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Word Wednesday

In a moment of silent prayer reflect on the words of the Gospel.

Our Father Friday

Pope Francis has asked that as a church we re-discover the richness of the prayer that Jesus gave us, the Our Father.

This week may we reflect on the words of the prayer and in the spirit of John the Baptist think about how it challenges us to “prepare a way for the Lord” and how we might do it.

Our Father Friday

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.
Thy Will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen.
