Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back to the summer term.

I hope that you and your families have enjoyed a happy and holy Easter, and that you were able to spend some restful and joyful time together.

As we begin this new term, we look forward to a busy and productive period in the college. The summer term is always a special one, filled with opportunities for learning, growth and celebration. Our students will be working hard as they prepare for assessments, GCSE examinations and key milestones, and we are proud of the commitment and resilience they continue to show.

A reminder that all students are expected to attend the college in full and correct uniform each day. This includes wearing appropriate black shoes. False nails and false eyelashes are not permitted. We ask for your support in ensuring that students arrive at college ready to learn and in line with our expectations. Students who fail to do so may be sent home to correct their uniform if they can do it.

Attendance and punctuality remain a key priority. Every lesson counts, and arriving on time ensures that students are fully prepared to make the most of their learning. We are aware that there are currently roadworks near the college which may impact journey times. We therefore ask that students leave home slightly earlier to avoid being late to the college. This is especially important as GCSE public examinations will begin soon, and strong attendance and punctuality are essential in supporting students to achieve their best outcomes.

Alongside academic work, there will be a range of enrichment activities, trips and events taking place. These experiences are an important part of college life and help to build confidence, teamwork and lasting memories.

We remain committed to supporting your daughter achieve her very best, both academically and personally. As always, we value your continued support and partnership.

Further information about key dates and events for this term can be found on the college website and our Instagram account: @tshlcharrow. Please take a look at our page and follow as we celebrate the many achievements of all your daughters.

Thank you for your ongoing support. We look forward to a successful and enjoyable term ahead.

Yours sincerely,
