Monday

Monday

This Thursday marks the beginning of the Month of the Rosary.

This is special time dedicated to praying with Mary and reflecting on the life of Jesus through the mysteries of the Rosary. As we pray, we are invited to grow closer to Christ, asking Mary to guide us in faith, hope, and love. The Rosary reminds us that God is present in every part of our lives and encourages us to bring our joys, worries, and prayers to Him each day.

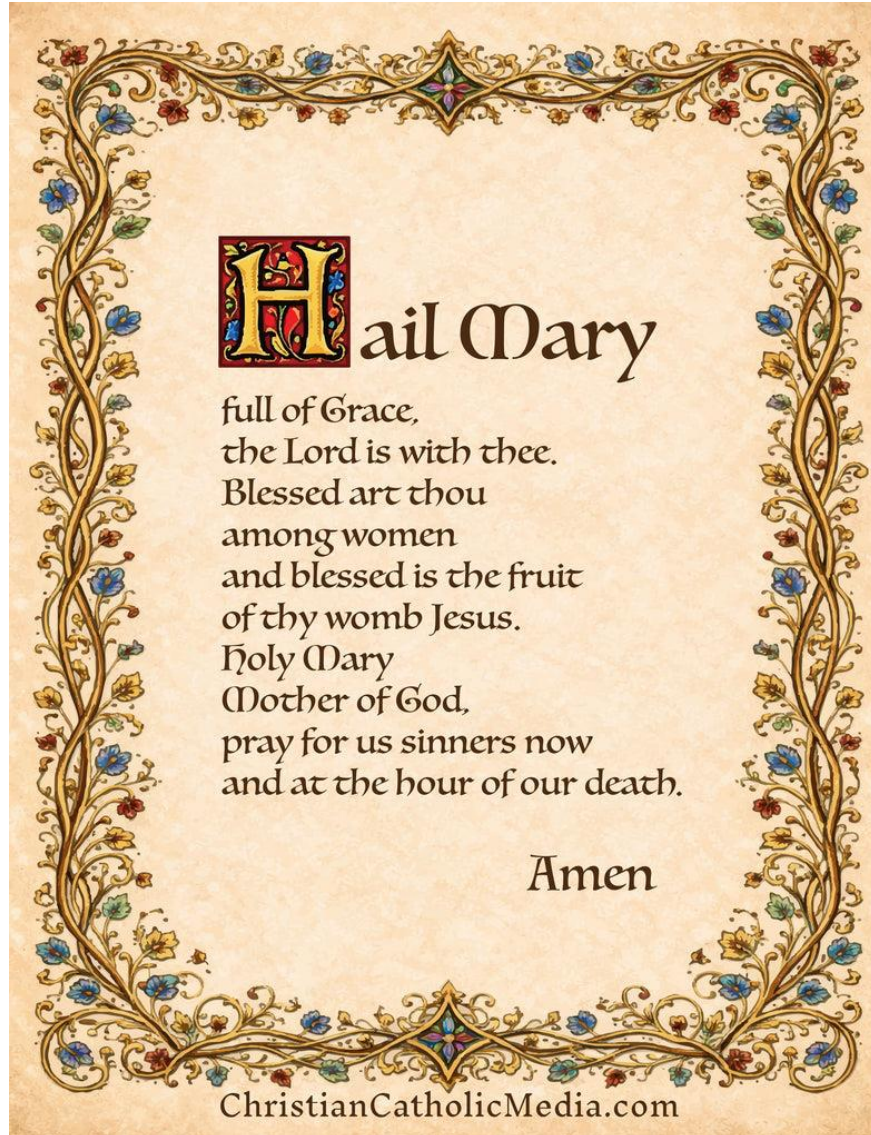

Monday

Together we pray:

DREAM VILLAIN

Tuesday

This week, we celebrate the Feast of St Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael – Archangels.

St Michael, St Gabriel, and St Raphael are the three archangels named in the Bible. St Michael is known as the protector who defends God's people, St Gabriel is God's messenger who announced the birth of Jesus to Mary, and St Raphael is a guide and healer who helped Tobias on his journey. On their feast day, we give thanks for their care, protection, and service to God.

Tuesday

On their feast day, Catholics are invited to reflect on God's presence in their lives, to trust in His protection and guidance, and to imitate the faithfulness and service of the archangels in their daily actions.

Lord,

We thank You for the gift of St Michael, St Gabriel, and St Raphael, Your faithful archangels who serve You and watch over us. Help us to trust in Your protection, listen carefully to Your call, and follow the path You have prepared for us.

Through the intercession of the holy archangels, strengthen us in times of difficulty, guide us in making good choices, and inspire us to serve You with courage and faith. May we always be aware of Your loving presence and strive to do Your will each day.

We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

On Wednesday we take time to reflect on Sacred Scripture.

We will listen to and reflect on Sunday's Gospel.

according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you O Lord (3 Crosses).

Word Wednesday

At that time: Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, ‘What do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, “Son, go and work in the vineyard today.” And he answered, “I will not”, but afterwards he changed his mind and went. And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, “I go, sir”, but did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?’ They said, ‘The first.’ Jesus said to them, ‘Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterwards change your minds and believe him.

Reflection

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the two sons. When their father asks them to work in the vineyard, one son says "no" but later changes his mind and goes, while the other says "yes" but never follows through. Through this story, Jesus teaches that what matters most is not simply what we say, but what we do. God calls each of us to follow Him, and sometimes we make mistakes, ignore His call, or choose the wrong path. The good news is that God always welcomes a change of heart. Jesus reminds us that true faith is shown through our actions and that it is never too late to turn back to God and do what is right.

Call to Action

This week, think about one area of your life where you could better put your faith into action. Perhaps it is helping at home, being kinder to someone, spending time in prayer, or standing up for what is right. If you have made mistakes or ignored God's call, remember that you can always choose a new beginning. Take one small step each day to match your actions with the good intentions in your heart.

Word Wednesday

Lord,

Thank You for Your patience and mercy. Help us to listen to Your call and to follow You not only with our words but also through our actions. When we make mistakes, give us the courage to change our hearts and begin again. Guide us to live faithfully each day and to do Your will with love and generosity.

Amen.

DREAM VILLAIN

Thursday

Today marks the beginning of Black History Month in the UK.

It is a time when we celebrate the past, present and future contributions and struggles of peoples of African heritage.

Together we pray...

Thursday

Lord,
who sent Jesus Christ to deliver us from all manner of injustices
and inequalities,
create in us new hearts and enlarged visions,
to see the image of God in every person irrespective of background, race, and ethnicity.

May we be generous in our love of others
as we work towards ending racism and injustice;
creating communities of human flourishing,
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Thursday

Today we also ask a great Saint of the Church, St Martin De Porres, to carry our prayers for this world to God...

Thursday

Prayer to Saint Martin de Porres

To you Saint Martin de Porres we prayerfully lift up our hearts filled with serene confidence and devotion. Mindful of your unbounded and helpful charity to all levels of society and also your meekness and humility of heart, we offer our petitions to you.

Pour out upon our families the precious gifts of your solicitous and generous intercession; show to the people of every race and every color the paths of unity and of justice; implore from our Father in heaven the coming of his kingdom, so that through mutual benevolence in God men may increase the fruits of grace and merit the rewards of eternal life.

Amen.

Friday

Today is CAFOD Harvest Fast Day.

We come together to celebrate the harvest and stand in solidarity with communities around the world who do not have reliable access to clean and safe water.

You can support CAFOD's campaign by wearing something bright with your school uniform and, if possible, making a donation via ParentPay.

Friday

Following the example of St Francis during his Jubilee Year, we pray together:

*We adore you,
Lord Jesus Christ,
here, and in all your churches
throughout the whole world,
and we bless you,
for by your holy cross you
have redeemed the world.*
