Monday

Today, we warmly welcome our RNDM Sisters from Sacred Heart Schools in New Zealand and Australia.

As one global Sacred Heart community, we give thanks for the gift of our shared mission, united by faith and guided by the charism of our Mother Foundress, Euphrasie Barbier.

Monday

Inspired by her devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Mother Foundress Euphrasie Barbier dreamed of sharing Christ's love with people throughout the world. This vision led her to found the Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions (RNDM) and send the first Sisters to New Zealand. Dedicated to Catholic education and missionary service, the Sisters worked especially with young people and those on the margins of society.

Over the years, they established Sacred Heart schools throughout New Zealand and later expanded to Australia in 1897, sharing the same values of faith, compassion, and service.

Today, we give thanks for our global Sacred Heart family and for the legacy of Euphrasie Barbier, which continues to inspire our shared mission.

Monday

Together we pray:

Prayer to the Sacred Heart

Merciful Jesus, I consecrate myself today and always
to Your Most Sacred Heart.
Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
I implore, that I may ever
love You more and more.
Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
I trust in You!
Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
have mercy on us!
Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
I believe in Your love for me.
Jesus, meek and humble of heart,
make my heart like Yours.
Amen

Tuesday

This week, we celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Our Lady of the Rosary is a title given to Mary, Mother of Jesus, that reminds us of the importance the Rosary. Through this prayer, we reflect on the key events in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, and ask Mary to guide us closer to her Son.

October is traditionally known as the Month of the Rosary, making this feast a special time to deepen our faith through prayer. We give thanks for Mary's loving care and ask for her help as we grow in faith and follow Jesus more closely.

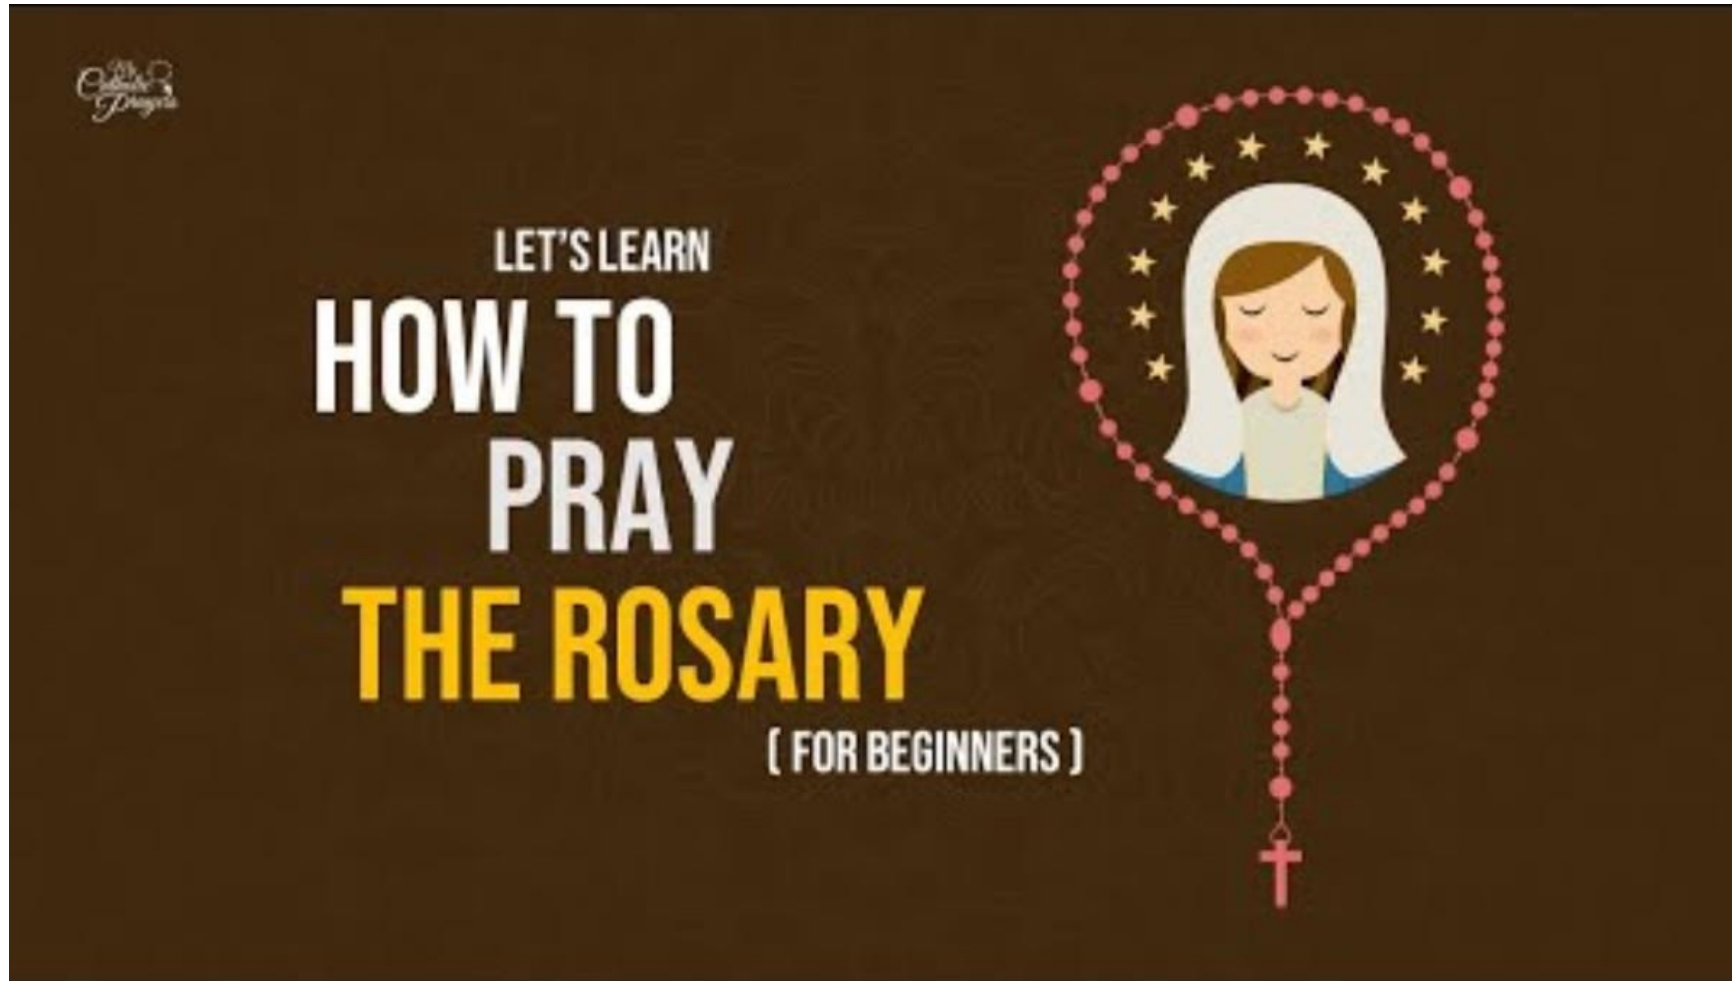

Tuesday

To celebrate the Feast of the Rosary, we will learn to pray it:

Tuesday

Throughout October, we will be praying the Rosary in the chapel every Friday lunchtime. Come and join us as we pray with Mary and grow closer to Jesus.

What The Saints Said About The Rosary

"I take refuge, then, in prayer, and turn to Mary, and our Lord always triumphs."

St. Therese of Lisieux

No prayer is more meritorious for the soul and more glorious for Jesus and Mary than a well recited Rosary.

Saint Louis de Montfort

The Rosary is a prayer that always accompanies me; it is also the prayer of the ordinary people and the saints... it is a prayer from my heart.

St. Pope John Paul II

Wednesday

Today, we will pause our Wednesday Word to take part in the Pope's intention inviting one million people around the world to pray the Rosary for peace.

In the Vatican Gardens, Pope Leo joined 1,300 people, including 700 children, in praying the Rosary and offering this Marian prayer for an end to violence in the world.

Reflecting the global nature of this initiative, each of the five decades of the Rosary was prayed in a different language: Italian, Spanish, Urdu, German, and Arabic.

This draws attention to both the wounds and hopes of people across the world. Prayers are offered for the children of Ukraine and all victims of war; for families in Lebanon, Syria, and the Holy Land; for persecuted Christians; for reconciliation in South Sudan; and for families in Cuba and Venezuela.

Pope Leo encouraged everyone to reflect on the power of this united prayer: “Think about it: fifty million Hail Marys rising to Heaven from every part of the world and in every language, asking for peace, joining together like one enormous Rosary, embracing all the continents, peoples, and nations of the world.”

Wednesday

We unite in prayer with one million children around the world asking Our Lady for peace.

How to Pray the Rosary

Follow this guide to learn how to pray the Rosary.

Prayers of the Rosary

The Sign of the Cross
In the name of the Father, I and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer
Our father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Hail Mary
Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Fatima Prayer
O My Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen
Hail, holy Queen, Mother of Mercy! Our life, our sweetness, and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve, to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us; and after this, our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Concluding Prayer
V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God. R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let Us Pray

O God, whose only begotten Son, by His life, death, and resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech Thee, that meditating upon these mysteries of the Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain, and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thursday

October is Black History Month in the UK.

It is a time when we celebrate the past, present and future contributions and struggles of peoples of African heritage.

To commemorate this month, we will learn about Saints of African origin.

Thursday

Saint Josephine Bakhita was born in Sudan and, as a child, was kidnapped and sold into slavery. After suffering many years of hardship, she was brought to Italy, where she eventually gained her freedom. Josephine discovered the Catholic faith and chose to become a nun. She dedicated her life to prayer, kindness, and helping others, becoming a powerful witness to forgiveness and hope. Despite the suffering she had experienced, she spoke of God's love and treated everyone with great compassion. Canonised in 2000, Saint Josephine Bakhita is now the patron saint of victims of human trafficking and a symbol of human dignity and freedom.

Thursday

Today we ask St Josephine Bakhita to carry our prayers for this world to God...

Thursday

PRAYER IN HONOR OF ST. JOSEPHINE BAKHITA

St. Josephine Bakhita, you were sold into slavery as a child and endured untold hardship and suffering. Once liberated from your physical enslavement, you found true redemption in your encounter with Christ and his Church. O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those whom man enslaves, let God set free. Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith. Help all survivors find healing from their wounds. We ask for your prayers and intercessions for those enslaved among us. Amen.

Friday

Friday

Today is the Feast Day of St John Henry Newman.

Saint John Henry Newman was a priest and educator who devoted his life to seeking and sharing the truth. He became a Catholic in 1845. He believed that faith and reason work together and encouraged people to follow God's call with courage. He made a lasting contribution to Catholic education and spiritual life through his teaching and writing. His motto, "Heart speaks unto heart," reflected his deep relationship with God. We remember Saint John Henry Newman for his wisdom, faithfulness, and commitment to helping others grow in faith.

St John Henry Newman, pray for us.

Friday

Following the example of St Francis during his Jubilee Year, we pray together:

*We adore you,
Lord Jesus Christ,
here, and in all your churches
throughout the whole world,
and we bless you,
for by your holy cross you
have redeemed the world.*
